Aggressive Strength Among the High-Priced Stocks and New York Central and Pennsylvania Show More Animation Than for Some Time.

NEW YORK, June 18 .- The Stock Market opened quite active, but with a very irregular tone. Reading and Missouri Pacific, which were the features of yesterday's dealings, scored further sharp advances at the opening of business, but otherwise price changes in comparison with yesterday's final figures were lim- night that the Senators had been whiteited and irregular. Comparatively little washed at the hands of the Detroit Tiwas done in St. Paul, Union Pacific, or gers. Further reading disclosed the fact the Atchison stocks. Little was done in local trac-tion shares, except in Metropolitan Street Railway, which was firm. The London market was again exceedingly dull and rather heavy, with declines generally showing it the American quar-ter. Foreign houses continued to sell here on the opening of business. There was nothing in this morning's news throwing any light upon the probable duration of the strike, and little else that was novel of interest. that was novel of interest.

High-Priced Stocks Strong.

The market continued irregular dur ing the forenoon, the chief feature of the dealings being the development of aggressive strength in some of the high er priced stocks. Illinois Central was a conspicuous feature in this movement, but New York Central and Pennsylvania also showed more animation than they have done in some time. Among the lower priced stocks the Wabash issues were conspicuous. Missouri Pacific and Reading became somewhat reactionary with the course of the morning. The fluctuations in St. Paul, Union Pacific, and Atchison were comparatively limited by the course of the morning that the course of the morning that the course of the morning. ## BASEBALL NOTES.

The excellent work of Pitcher Theilnan has been the one bright spot in the incinnatis' playing in the East The cast-off of the New York team has omed up like a star since he joined the Reds, and he seems a better man today han the great Mathewson. When Mr. Brush turned Mathewson ver to the New York Club he placed hat club under obligations to him, and is only fair that he should receive a good pitcher in return. Hence the switching of Theilman from New York to Cincinnati.

Cy Young has pitched seven games this season without giving a base on

There have been only five passed balls parked up against the Oriole catchers. Robinson has three and Bresnahan two

It is said that Dummy Hoy has the irst dollar he ever earned playing base-He is estimated as being worth at

The total number of bases on ball: given by the Oriole twirlers up to Satrday was ninety-five. They also have their credit ninety-eight strike outs, our wild pitches, and have hit thirtee pposing batsmen.

"The days of one man's ability to pitch, catch, and field, and stay in fast company," says Clark Griffith, "are over, and the specialist has come to stay. A man must be educated to his one position only."

There had been nine extra-inning games played in the American League up to Saturday, one of which was prolonged 17 innings. They are: Chicago at Detroit, 10 innings; Washington at Baltimore, 10 innings; Philadelphia at Boston, 10 innings; St. Louis at Chicago, 17 innings; St. Louis at Chicago, 19 innings; St. Louis at Washington, 10 innings; St. Louis at Washington, 10

"Gentlemen," said Andy Freedm centlemen, said Andy Freedman re-cently to his players, "you are a bunch of dubs. You are lobsters net. You don't know the difference between a base hit and a high-ball. You are a lot of quitters. Now get into the game and play as everyone knows you are capable of playing. Gentlemen, I thank you for your kind attention.'
